Prayer Concerns - As we honor our military and their families on Memorial Day, thank you Lord for all of the men and women who serve now and who have served in the past in any way to keep our great country safe and free.

Reminder that Mystery Missions is an on-going mission. If anyone knows of anyone in need to fill out the card on our Global Missions board outside of the office and turn it into the office. We have already touched members in the community with this mission! If you'd like to give, cash or checks are accepted either in the offering plate or in the church office. Just make sure they are marked towards Mystery Missions. Thank you!
